Terms and Conditions: By registering as a member of the network you are entering into an agreement with Middleton Burgess Limited. Annual membership entitles you to attend the next four evening panel discussions and two half-day workshops free of charge from the date of your membership application, this is the membership period. Places at workshops are limited, and not guaranteed for members. Members will be given at least one week's advance notice of workshops prior to details being made available to non-members. After this time places will be allocated on a "first come first served basis". Members must confirm their attendance to each event that is included as part of the membership package. No refunds are applicable to annual memberships. If a member is unable to attend an evening panel discussion that occurs during the membership period they may transfer the place to a senior colleague. The transfer of membership places does not apply to workshops. As part of the membership package you are also entitled to receive special discounts off the price of other events held by the network during your membership period. As part of the membership package you are entitled to receive the published discounted rates for registration at other events held by the network during the membership period. These rates will be published as they become available, and registration for these events should take place in the normal way. If cancellation occurs the individual event cancellation rules apply. The transfer of membership places or membership discounts is not allowed. It may be necessary beyond the control of Middleton Burgess Limited to alter the content and timing of the programme or the location of any event. In case of cancellation Middleton Burgess Limited liability is limited to transfer this booking to a similar event to be held within the next 12 months. Should Middleton Burgess Limited be unable to provide a similar event a refund will be applicable to the value of the registration price paid at the time of booking.
